Audrey Azoulay, Minister of Culture and Communication, welcomed the holding of the first National Architecture Days celebrating the richness of the discipline with many facets.-----

The 368 proposed initiatives throughout France from Friday, October 14 to Sunday, October 16, 2016, thanks to the commitment and dynamism of the sector, met a craze, confirming the public's interest in architecture.-----

Through lectures, educational workshops, guided tours, urban walks, the public discover the many aspects of this discipline.

Audrey Azoulay welcomes partners in the operation, as well as all public, private or associative, who have made a dynamic momentum in the first edition of this new national cultural event, which is part of the National Strategy for architecture (SNA) and in the extension of architecture in favour of provisions adopted in the law on the freedom of creation, architecture and heritage of the July 8, 2016 Source : Ministry of Culture
